

INTER ARMY PUBLIC SCHOOLS, SOUTH WESTERN COMMAND ONLINE ETHICS BOWL COMPETITION (2022-23)

An Ethics Bowl is both a collaborative and competitive event, where teams of students analyze and discuss ethical dilemmas. They imagine, criticize, and compare bold strategies, and may even amend their original positions when faced with convincing arguments.

AWWA, South Western Command is going to conduct an online Ethics Bowl Competition. The competition shall be conducted over a period of 06 days wef 11th to 16 Jul 2022 with preliminary activities on 9th and 10th July. 12 Army Public Schools under South Western Command are going to showcase their talent on the given topics. And it is a matter of great pride that APS, Jaipur has got the opportunity to host the event. The event will be inaugurated by the honorable Chief Guest Mrs Ravneet Bhinder, Regional President AWWA.

The competition will be conducted ONLINE, for all matches at Command Level as well as Semi Finals at National level. Only the Final match at Delhi will be conducted OFFLINE on 22 August 2022. Each APS will field only one team, totalling 12 teams. Teams shall be divided into two pools - Pool A and Pool B with six teams each by draw of lots which will be conducted two days prior to start of the event. Matches will be held on Elimination basis.

The series of the event will pop up with three sessions each day. The duration of each session will be of an hour and a half, in which two topics will be discussed. The competition shall be broadly based on the contours of the revised SOP.

It is very fascinating to know that the breathtaking event is not going to take a pause, as it is going to be continued back to back for six consecutive days. Therefore, each day is going to be very exciting with the results unfolding. We are eagerly looking forward to organizing the event with the fullest of our zeal and enthusiasm. The length and breadth of knowledge the participants will gain through this event will be simply unparalleled.
